

WORKSHOP GUIDE

THE MOTIVATION TO SERVE OTHERS:
LEAD BY PUTTING PEOPLE FIRST

SESSION INFO

Think about what motivates you as a leader. Do you lead for the right reasons? Are you focused on empowering others? Now more than ever, leaders face challenges of supporting their teams with compassion and putting them first. This online workshop brings you local panelists who share their take on what it means to “put people first.” You’ll learn some practical tips for improving relationships and serving others in a season of crisis.

LEADERSHIP PRINCIPLES

The principals of servant-based leadership are the same inside a crisis or outside a crisis, with their importance magnified in a crisis. What are those principals for each of you?

- Serve your team based on their needs, not your own.
- Make sure your team feels safe - mentally, emotionally, physically.
- Cast your vision. Let your team know where you're going.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- How are you staying connected and being present with your team?
- Who can you check in on today?
- What are some ways you can be more intentional each day?
- How often are you praising your team?
- Name some ways you can include your team in your vision.

YOUR TAKEAWAYS

QUOTES

"Be yourself. People would rather follow a leader who is always real rather than a leader who is always right."

CRAIG GROESCHEL

"If you want people to go, go, go with you, you have to invest in them first."

STACEY YOUNG

"How much better is your organization if you develop the people around you?"

MASON DEJARNETT

"Be intentional to add value to every person you meet every day."

JOHN C. MAXWELL
